

Andy Brown

Andy Brown began his music career back in the 80s. He has been a musician for over 20 years and has graced the stage with the likes of Tracy Chapman, Youssou N'Dour and Bruce Springsteen at the 1988 Human Rights Concert in Harare. He has recorded over 15 albums and his latest being Chioko.

Friday, September 30, 2011

9pm - 11pm

Chiwoniso Maraire

Chiwoniso Maraire (born in 1976 in Olympia, Washington, U.S.) is an accomplished singer, songwriter, and exponent of Zimbabwean mbira music. She is the daughter of famed mbira master Dumisani Maraire.

Friday, September 30, 2011

9pm - 11pm

The Chitungwiza Harmony Choir

Established by energetic Israel Dzangare in 1993, the Chitungwiza Harmony Choir has performed several times at HIFA, have performed at the Edinburgh Festival 2006, at several excellent concerts locally each year, and have for several years competed in the Old Mutual sponsored competition, which draws the very best choirs from all over the Southern African region to compete for its top accolades.

Friday, September 30, 2011

Kudzai Sevenzo

Kudzai Sevenzo is synonymous with a classy sophistication that is fresh and vibrant. She is an extremely motivated artist who is charting her own course in a fiercely competitive music industry. Armed with her soulful, alto voice, she has won the hearts of many Zimbabweans, appealing to both young and old.

Saturday, October 1, 2011

9pm - 11pm

The Charambas

Born in 1971, Charles Charamba, is a Pastor in the Apostolic Faith Mission Church of Zimbabwe. He is married to Olivia who is a gospel diva in her own right. Charles Charamba is so far the largest selling gospel artist in Zimbabwe.

Sunday, October 2, 2011

9pm - 11pm

LIVE MUSIC

Transit Crew

Transit Crew is one of Zimbabwe's first reggae bands formed in 1988 and it has been in the industry for more than 20 years. The band has performed at international stages including a tour of Japan in 1990. It has supported Jamaica's top reggae artists such as Culture, Dennis Brown, Ijahman Levi, Eric Donaldson and Shabba Ranks. They were the backing band for British based Dub poet called Benjamin Zephania in the late 1990's.

Monday, October 3, 2011

9pm - 11pm

Energy Mutodi & Real Sounds of Africa

The Real Sounds, an 11-piece line-up based in the Zimbabwean capital of Harare and consisting entirely of Congolese musicians, are the most successful proponents of the rumba outside DRC itself. The group was founded by guitarist Ghaby Mumba, who was born in Kinshasa and played with a variety of local bands before joining the Government-sponsored Orchestre Diables Noirs, playing a mixture of jazz, rock 'n' roll and rumba in the OK Jazz mould.

Tuesday, October 4, 2011

9pm - 11pm

Victor Kunonga

Self taught acoustic guitarist Victor Kunonga has three albums to his name such is Life: Ndanyengetedzwa (2004), Uyo (2006) and Handinete (2010). Victor and his band, Peace have been a part of every major festival in Zimbabwe and a regular feature at premium Zimbabwe functions and jazz clubs. He has performed along side Oliver Mtukudzi, Malaika, Habib Koite, Jabu Khanyile, Yvonne Chaka Chaka, Judith Sephuma and Louis Mhlanga. Victor had a major concert at Johannesburg's Bassline Jazz Club alongside jazz master Steve Dyer and his son Bokani, Tuku, and outstanding New York based jazz saxophonist Max Wild (performing with Sam Mtukudzi).

Wednesday, October 5, 2011

9pm - 11pm

Mic Inity

The reggae giant has taken reggae fans by storm and has a huge following among both the young and older generation. Mic mesmerizes the crowd with his voice. He has performed alongside the late Lucky Dube at the Macufe Festival in Bloomfontein and Jamaican artists such as Luciano, Mikey General and Elephant Man.

Thursday, October 6, 2011

9pm - 11pm

The Chitungwiza Harmony Choir

Established by energetic Israel Dzangare in 1993, the Chitungwiza Harmony Choir has participated several times at HIFA, has performed at the Edinburgh Festival 2006, at several excellent concerts locally each year, and has for several years competed in the Old Mutual sponsored competition, which draws the very best choirs from all over the Southern African region to compete for its top accolades.

Friday, October 7, 2011

Edith WeUtonga

Edith WeUtonga- Real name Edith Kajiti- Mjanana is a self taught bassist, vocalist and song writer. She fronts the female dominated seven piece band UTONGA which has four females on instruments and three males. She plays a fusion of contemporary Zimbabwean traditional beats.

Friday, October 7, 2011

9pm - 11pm

